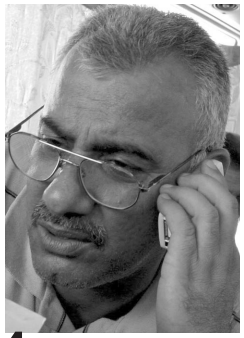
Voices of Iraqi Workers

2007 SOLIDARITY TOUR



coming to San Jose

Sunday, June 10th 2-4 p.m.

Laborers Hall

509 Emory St. at Coleman (south of Hedding)

Featured speakers

Hashmeya Muhsin Hussein, president,
Iraqi Electrical Utility Workers Union
(first woman to lead a national union in Iraq)

Faleh Abood Umara, general secretary,
Iraqi Federation of Oil Unions

Find out...

- What are conditions for working people in Iraq
- How the occupation has affected families and children
- Why unions oppose the proposed oil investment law
- What will happen if the occupation continues
- What will happen if it ends rapidly
- What Iraqi working people want to happen
- Whether a peaceful, stable, non-sectarian Iraq is possible

Admission: $5-15 sliding scale (no one turned away for lack of funds)
For more information: joan@wilpfsanjose.org or 408-243-4359

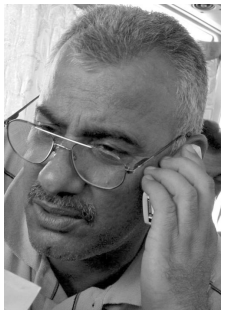
Sponsors: South Bay AFL-CIO Labor Council, Building & Construction Trades Council, Communications Workers of America Local 9423, Plumbers & Fitters Local 393, Laborers Local 270, California Nurses Association, South Bay Mobilization, San Jose Peace Center, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, Friends of South Asia, Veterans for Peace, Labor Party, Green Party of Santa Clara County, our developing world, Arab-American Cultural Center of Silicon Valley, Students for Justice-SJSU

National sponsors: U.S. Labor Against the War, American Friends Service Committee, United for Peace and Justice. Regional: KPFA

For full schedule and more information visit www.uslaboragainstwar.org

Voices of Iraqi Workers

2007 SOLIDARITY TOUR



coming to San Jose

Sunday, June 10th 2-4 p.m.

Laborers Hall

509 Emory St. at Coleman (south of Hedding)

Featured speakers

Hashmeya Muhsin Hussein, president,
Iraqi Electrical Utility Workers Union
(first woman to lead a national union in Iraq)

Faleh Abood Umara, general secretary,
Iraqi Federation of Oil Unions

Find out...

- What are conditions for working people in Iraq
- How the occupation has affected families and children
- Why unions oppose the proposed oil investment law
- What will happen if the occupation continues
- What will happen if it ends rapidly
- What Iraqi working people want to happen
- Whether a peaceful, stable, non-sectarian Iraq is possible

Admission: $5-15 sliding scale (no one turned away for lack of funds)
For more information: joan@wilpfsanjose.org or 408-243-4359

Sponsors: South Bay AFL-CIO Labor Council, Building & Construction Trades Council, Communications Workers of America Local 9423, Plumbers & Fitters Local 393, Laborers Local 270, California Nurses Association, South Bay Mobilization, San Jose Peace Center, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, Friends of South Asia, Veterans for Peace, Labor Party, Green Party of Santa Clara County, our developing world, Arab-American Cultural Center of Silicon Valley, Students for Justice-SJSU

National sponsors: U.S. Labor Against the War, American Friends Service Committee, United for Peace and Justice. Regional: KPFA

For full schedule and more information visit www.uslaboragainstwar.org