(NO ONE TURNED AWAY FOR LACK OF FUNDS)

Lynne Stewart is a dynamic, dedicated, civil rights attorney based in New York City. On April 9, 2002, Lynne was indicted by John Ashcroft for providing aid to terrorists. While most charges were originally dismissed, Lynne has recently been re-indicted. Please come and learn how this case affects all of our civil rights and liberties. Donations for Lynne's defense will be accepted at the door. For more information about Lynne, contact: www.lynnestewart.org. For more information about the event, contact Constance Carpenter or Jeff Lake at (408) 287-1916.

The Reception will feature a display of political posters by artist Doug Minkler. Posters will be auctioned with proceeds to the Defense Committee.
