"Incident at Oglalla: The Leonard Peltier Story"

MACLA Arts Center
510 South First St., San José

In 1975, armed FBI agents illegally entered the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation. Gunfire erupted - a Native American and two FBI agents fell dead. After the largest manhunt in FBI history, three men were apprehended - only one, Leonard Peltier, was convicted of murder and sentenced to life in prison. This is his story.

"Unconstitutional: The War on Our Civil Liberties"

510 South First St., San José

UNCONSTITUTIONAL reveals how paranoia, fear and racial and ethnic profiling have led to the subjugation of our constitutional rights, without protecting us from future terrorist attack. Through personal stories, the film explores how detentions and police infiltration of ordinary Americans has been based solely on unconstitutional directives from the White House and the Justice Department. Sponsored by the ACLU.
