

RNC Report Back: Support Our Local Activists

Report Back from Dennis Kyne and other activists,
Video from RNC, and music by Dennis Kyne,
as well as Annie & the Vets!

Tuesday, Oct. 19th, 7pm

MACLA Arts Center
510 South First St., San José

Come join us and stand in solidarity with local activists who protested the Bush agenda at the Republican National Convention (RNC) (August 29, 2004) and defended our rights!

Proceeds from this fundraiser go towards legal fees and costs of local activists who must go back to New York City and face serious charges for speaking the truth in New York City!

Dennis Kyne of San Jose, CA flashes the peace sign at demonstrators as they march down a Manhattan street during a protest organized by the group United for Peace and Justice in New York, Sunday, Aug. 29, 2004.

"Unconstitutional: The War on Our Civil Liberties"

MACLA Arts Center
510 South First St., San José

UNCONSTITUTIONAL reveals how paranoia, fear and racial and ethnic profiling have led to the subjugation of our constitutional rights, without protecting us from future terrorist attack. Through personal stories, the film explores how detentions and police infiltration of ordinary Americans has been based solely on unconstitutional directives from the White House and the Justice Department. Sponsored by the ACLU.
