

THROUGH THE WALL

A YEAR IN HAVANA

By Author Margot Pepper

From her unique vantage point as a journalist working for a year in Special Period Cuba, Margot Pepper has written a smart and politically sophisticated memoir. Interweaving her past as the Mexico city-born daughter of a blacklisted Hollywood producer with the travails of her daily life in Cuba and the larger context of Cuban society in general, her work is imbued with her own political analysis and convictions and captures the feelings as well as the heart beat of struggling Cuba during such a crucial time. Bravo, Margot Pepper, for writing such an honest and important work. Punto!
