

SBM Exploration Series

"Chomsky On Anarchism"

A Talk by
Curator of the Emma
Goldman Archive
Barry Pateman

Noam Chomsky

"Chomsky on Anarchism",
Edited by Barry Pateman (2005)

Barry Pateman, curator of the Emma Goldman Archive in San Francisco and the editor of the new book, "Chomsky on Anarchism" (2005), will speak on Noam Chomsky's 'brand' of anarchism: libertarian socialism.

We all know what Noam Chomsky is against. His scathing analysis and brilliant critiques of - among other things - capitalism, imperialism, domestic repression and government propaganda have become mini-publishing industries unto themselves. But, in this flood of publishing and republishing, very little ever gets said about what exactly Chomsky stands for, his own personal politics, his vision of the future.

Come find out in this informative talk by Barry Pateman.

San Jose
Wednesday, Oct. 5th
7:00 pm

El Primer Pueblo Libreria
410 E. Santa Clara St.
San Jose, CA
(corner of 9th St. and Santa Clara St.)

Suggested Donation: $5 - $15 Sliding Scale
(Students FREE! No one turned away for lack of funds)

Sponsored by
South Bay Mobilization
Peninsula Anarchist Collective

For more information, contact South Bay Mobilization: (408) 998-8504
www.sbm4peace.org

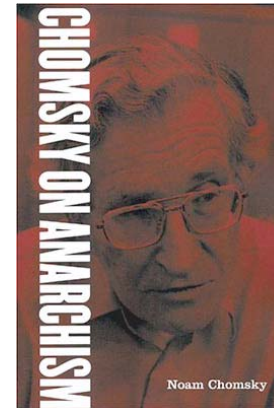

SBM Exploration Series

"Chomsky On Anarchism"

A Talk by
Curator of the Emma
Goldman Archive
Barry Pateman

Noam Chomsky

"Chomsky on Anarchism",
Edited by Barry Pateman (2005)

Barry Pateman, curator of the Emma Goldman Archive in San Francisco and the editor of the new book, "Chomsky on Anarchism" (2005), will speak on Noam Chomsky's 'brand' of anarchism: libertarian socialism.

We all know what Noam Chomsky is against. His scathing analysis and brilliant critiques of - among other things - capitalism, imperialism, domestic repression and government propaganda have become mini-publishing industries unto themselves. But, in this flood of publishing and republishing, very little ever gets said about what exactly Chomsky stands for, his own personal politics, his vision of the future.

Come find out in this informative talk by Barry Pateman.

San Jose
Wednesday, Oct. 5th
7:00 pm

El Primer Pueblo Libreria
410 E. Santa Clara St.
San Jose, CA
(corner of 9th St. and Santa Clara St.)

Suggested Donation: $5 - $15 Sliding Scale
(Students FREE! No one turned away for lack of funds)

Sponsored by
South Bay Mobilization
Peninsula Anarchist Collective

For more information, contact South Bay Mobilization: (408) 998-8504
www.sbm4peace.org