

Foreign Affairs Film Series Presents

Good Kurds, Bad Kurds: No Friends But the Mountains

A film by Kevin McKiernan

A chronicle which details the human rights disaster that was the ethnic cleansing of Kurds in Turkey. The documentary features war zone footage and a close-up view of life for one Kurdish family trying to start over again in Santa Barbara, California. With a population of 25 million spilling over the borders of Turkey, Iraq, Iran, Syria and the former Soviet Union, the Kurds have maintained their way of life for more than 2000 years.

"Good Kurds" are those in Iraq; they are Saddam Hussein's victims, whom we want to help. "Bad Kurds" are those waging an armed insurrection against Turkey, an American ally; they are the receiving end of US weaponry. During the first Gulf War, McKiernan went to northern Iraq to cover the uprising against Saddam Hussein. Just a few miles away no one was covering the hidden war in Turkey. McKiernan determined he would report the story independently.

Film followed by a talk and discussion by Sharat G. Lin

Wednesday, May 7th, 6:30 pm

Foothill Community College
12345 El Monte Rd.
Los Altos, CA
Map: www.foothill.edu/news/mainmaps.html

Park in Lot #1
Walk up the hill to
Appreciation Hall, Rm 1501

Sponsored by
Current Affairs Club, Foothills College,
De Anza Students for Justice, and
South Bay Mobilization

Money for Jobs & Education,
Not for War & Occupation
Only the People Can Stop the War!
www.SouthBayMobilization.org

Event Dates: Upcoming Events with Featured Speaker:
- 5/20, 6:30pm - "Peace, Propaganda & the Promised Land",
(same location) with Professor Khalil Barhoum, Stanford University

Foreign Affairs Film Series Presents

Good Kurds, Bad Kurds: No Friends But the Mountains

A film by Kevin McKiernan

A chronicle which details the human rights disaster that was the ethnic cleansing of Kurds in Turkey. The documentary features war zone footage and a close-up view of life for one Kurdish family trying to start over again in Santa Barbara, California. With a population of 25 million spilling over the borders of Turkey, Iraq, Iran, Syria and the former Soviet Union, the Kurds have maintained their way of life for more than 2000 years.

"Good Kurds" are those in Iraq; they are Saddam Hussein's victims, whom we want to help. "Bad Kurds" are those waging an armed insurrection against Turkey, an American ally; they are the receiving end of US weaponry. During the first Gulf War, McKiernan went to northern Iraq to cover the uprising against Saddam Hussein. Just a few miles away no one was covering the hidden war in Turkey. McKiernan determined he would report the story independently.

Film followed by a talk and discussion by Sharat G. Lin

Wednesday, May 7th, 6:30 pm

Foothill Community College
12345 El Monte Rd.
Los Altos, CA
Map: www.foothill.edu/news/mainmaps.html

Park in Lot #1
Walk up the hill to
Appreciation Hall, Rm 1501

Sponsored by
Current Affairs Club, Foothills College,
De Anza Students for Justice, and
South Bay Mobilization

Money for Jobs & Education,
Not for War & Occupation
Only the People Can Stop the War!
www.SouthBayMobilization.org

Event Dates: Upcoming Events with Featured Speaker:
- 5/20, 6:30pm - "Peace, Propaganda & the Promised Land",
(same location) with Professor Khalil Barhoum, Stanford University