

Eyewitness Gaza

A Multimedia Report Back from Occupied Palestine

NOTE ROOM CHANGE!

With social justice activists, Donna and Darlene Wallach

Donna and Darlene Wallach, Bay Area social justice activists, have just returned from Palestine, after living in the Gaza Strip from August to December, 2008. They witnessed first hand the brutality of the Israeli Occupation and blockade of Gaza and experienced the impact of Israel's collective punishment of Gaza, living alongside ordinary Palestinians.

Come listen to Donna and Darlene speak about the spirit, resilience, kindness, generosity, and sense of humor of the Palestinian people and the peaceful ways they survive the extreme hardships of the Israeli blockade and violence.

In August, 2008, both Donna and Darlene joined with other human rights workers to break Israel's blockade of Gaza. They sailed to Gaza on the SS Liberty and the SS Free Gaza to become the first people to freely enter Palestine in 41 years! For more information on the Free Gaza Movement, visit FreeGaza.org. Don't miss this historic report back!
